

EMPLOYEE COMMENDATIONS IN 2012:

All employees have the responsibility to deliver acceptable results of their jobs. A deficiency in their work outcomes naturally may receive criticism. On the other hand, a job well done customarily awaits praises much so when employees have to deal with abnormal situations or adversities yet they rise above to overcome.

These employees racked up the most number of commendations in 2012, they who went above and beyond to perform their duties exceptionally.

PAGSS lauds these employees with applause and cheers! They only not delivered their best but their gestures inspire others to do better and to get ahead within the organization. Their commendable accomplishments flicker positive impact to the image and branding of the Company to our clients, an essential matter to draw their trust that the Company regards only the best and quality service to them.

All thumbs up for the excellent job! Yours are priceless treasures; no amount of material adulation can match up the honor you brought to PAGSS.

CONGRATULATIONS!
